What about the Australian mythical animal? I can't wait to read about them when we are back at school.

L.I.: Transport – modes ^{jiāotōng gōngjù} 交通工具

S.C.: - I can explain how the expression 交通 is formed.

- I can say and write the basic mode of transport 'car'.

If we want to see Australian animals, we need to go to the zoo or travel to outback Australia. So, we are going to learn about transport 交通。

The Chinese expression for transport is made up of ^{jiāo}交 which means crossing over and ^{tōng}通 which means through. Together they mean crossing the road or the bridge to get through to another place.

The most common way of getting to another place is either walking or using a car. Watch the You Tube video to learn some modes of transport in Chinese. Scan this or click on <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6kOrs-XnSw8>. You can also go to you Tube and type '148 Transportation - Mandarin Chinese' in the  bar.

There are 8 modes of transport in the video but do not try to remember all of them. Try to remember ^{qìchē}汽车(car) and ^{díshì}的士(taxi). Did you notice the character 车 can be found in 4 of the 8 vehicles? They are ^{qìchē}汽车, ^{gōngjiāochē}公交车, ^{zìxíngchē}自行车 and ^{huǒchē}火车. 车 means car and is used in naming all vehicles that has wheels and moves on the ground! Do you know how to pronounce it? Keep listening to the video and try to remember it.

Learn how to write this important character for vehicles.
