

Please glue all your Chinese worksheets in your Chinese book so you can show me your lovely work when we are back at school. You can also do it in Google Classroom and submit it online.

Let's start this week's activities. Try to finish this by Thursday.

Start with writing the date as we always do in Chinese classes.

今	天	是					年		月
			日	星	期		。

天	气	:
---	---	---	--	--	--	--

L.I.: Living Land - study tour ^{yóuxué tuán} 游学团

S.C.: - I can explain what a study tour is.

- I can answer the questions about the study tour that David is joining.

Students in China are having their summer holiday now. Before Covid, many Chinese students, especially those in the cities, joined overseas study tours and Australia was a popular destination. Do you know what a study tour is? Write the definition in English.

Likewise, some Australian students also went to China for study tours and Beijing is a popular city to visit. David ^{dàwèi} 大卫 is going and you are going to read about David and his friend's conversation.

Before that, let's look at the expression for study tour in Chinese. Go to Yabla and check out how to pronounce 游学团. 游学团 is the abbreviation of ^{lǚ yóu xué xí tuán} 旅游学习团. Type the pinyin of 旅游 and it is the first one up. Then do 学习(xuexi) followed by 团(tuan). Does the meaning agree with the definition you have written above?
